

WORKERS HERE TO AID IN ARMENIAN DRIVE

Ask Tulsa to Raise $37,000 for Relief Work in Near East Made Helpless by the War.

REV. ABEL IS IN CHARGE

Miss Katherine McCormick, National Speaker, Here to Help Organize for the Campaign

Miss Katherine McCormick, member of National Council of Women, has come to Tulsa to assist Rev. J. W. Abel, chairman of relief in the near east, to raise the same quota of $37,000 for the post-war cause. Miss McCormick says: "Tulsa raises this quota, it will be the means of putting Oklahoma over the top."

Miss McCormick has spoken before the Ad Club and other interested meetings held the last few days and wants to meet the organized women in post-war work so as to secure their assistance. She conferred today with Mrs. Harry C. Adair, one of the prominent war workers of the city, and was amazed that these women would do their best, which she said always educated.

Cleveland Dodge of New York, a well known philanthropist, has given $10,000 to the cause of assisting the women and children of the near east, while means have been made available for Miss McCormick's services for June. Mrs. John Carson is an outstanding all worker for the child, as well as recording the names of the long waiting list that is kept with the detention home in Tulsa.

The first consideration, Mrs. Carson writes, is to find the home where a good home and enough she estimates the amount of real misery the woman appears to have. Many women seem to just want a pet," said Mrs. Carson, and that is not what we want in the way of a mother for this child. Others seem not to realize what responsibilities go with motherhood.
